About the Authors

In Memoriam: This edition is dedicated to the memory and long service of Dr. Leon E. Hay as an author of the third through twelfth editions of Accounting for Governmental and Nonprofit Entities. Dr. Hay was a nationally recognized leader and educator in the field of governmental and not-for-profit accounting.

Earl R. Wilson

Is Professor Emeritus of Accountancy at the University of Missouri—Columbia. He received his BA and MBA from Chapman University and his MA and PhD in Accountancy from the University of Missouri—Columbia. He is a certified public accountant (Missouri).

Professor Wilson has contributed substantially to standards setting in governmental accounting and auditing, having served as an academic fellow with the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) and as a member of the Governmental Accounting Standards Advisory Council, the U.S. Comptroller General's Advisory Council on Governmental Auditing Standards, the American Institute of CPAs Government Accounting and Auditing Committee, and as chair of the Missouri Society of CPAs (MSCPA) Government Accounting Committee and president of the American Accounting Association Government and Nonprofit (AAA-GNP) Section. In addition, he has served on several GASB task forces and conducted financial reporting research for the GASB.

Dr. Wilson has published numerous research articles in journals such as The Accounting Review; Journal of Accounting Research; Contemporary Accounting Research; Journal of Accounting and Public Policy; Journal of Accounting, Auditing, and Finance; Research in Governmental and Nonprofit Accounting; Public Budgeting and Finance, and others. Many of these articles are frequently cited as influential studies of the municipal bond market. He has been an author of this text since the ninth edition in 1992. He has extensive experience teaching governmental and nonprofit accounting, including online courses.

Professor Wilson has received a number of awards for his teaching and research, including the Enduring Lifetime Contribution Award from the AAA-GNP section, the 2003 Cornelius Tierney/Ernst & Young Research Award from the Association of Government Accountants, Outstanding Teacher of the Year for 2002 from the Kansas City MU Business Alumni Association, and the 2000 Outstanding Educator of the Year and 2008 Outstanding CPA in Government awards from the MSCPA. He has chaired or served as reader of more than 30 doctoral dissertations, many in the area of governmental accounting.

Jacqueline L. Reck
