MEET OUR AUTHORS

■ Donald J. Guerrieri

Donald J. Guerrieri is an accounting instructor at Norwin Senior High School, North Huntingdon, Pennsylvania. He has taught accounting at both the secondary and college levels. He also has experience working for a firm of certified public accountants. Dr. Guerrieri has written numerous articles on the teaching of accounting for a variety of educational journals. He is also a program speaker at business education seminars and conferences.

■ F. Barry Haber

F. Barry Haber is Professor of Accounting at Fayetteville State University, Fayetteville, North Carolina. Dr. Haber has been teaching accounting principles courses for more than thirty-five years. He is a certified public accountant and has served on the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) Minority Doctoral Fellows Committee. In addition to teaching accounting principles, Dr. Haber has authored three other textbooks, as well as various articles and cases in accounting.

■ William B. Hoyt

William B. Hoyt is an accounting instructor at Wilton High School, Wilton, Connecticut. He has been involved in accounting curriculum development for many years. He was a member of the writing task force for the National Standards for Business Education and has published several articles in professional journals. In 1996, Mr. Hoyt was named Connecticut's Outstanding Business Educator of the Year and in 1997 was named National Secondary Teacher of the Year by the National Business Education Association.

■ Robert E. Turner

Robert E. Turner is the Vice President for Business Affairs at Northeast Louisiana University, Monroe, Louisiana. Mr. Turner has taught accounting and other business subjects at the high school and college levels. Mr. Turner has appeared on local, state, and national programs of a number of business education conferences. He is also a frequent speaker at educational seminars and workshops around the country.

Introducing Glencoe's Business Partners

Peachtree Software began in Atlanta over 20 years ago as a retail computer store selling hardware. In the early 1980's, Peachtree began developing a line of application software products for the home, education, and business markets, with emphasis on accounting products. The company is the first to provide off-the-shelf accounting software for personal computers. With more than a million packages of its accounting software sold, Peachtree is recognized as a leader in the small business accounting market.

Robert Half International Inc. is the world's first and largest staffing service in accounting, financial, banking and information systems. Founded in 1948, Robert Half provides services in both full-time and temporary staffing. They match ideal candidates to clients that have special staffing requirements. With over 200 offices in the United States, Canada, and Europe, Robert Half is committed to quality, customer service, and professionalism.

The American Institute of Certified Public Accountants is a national professional organization for Certified Public Accountants in the United States. With more than 330,000 members, AICPA provides its members with resources and information, enabling them to provide valuable services to employers, clients, and the public.
