About the Authors

SUSAN M. SHAW is associate professor and director of women studies at Oregon State University. Her research interests are in women and rock 'n' roll, women and HIV/AIDS, and women in religion, and she teaches courses in systems of oppression, women and sexuality, feminist theology, and women and pop culture. She is author of Storytelling in Religious Education (Religious Education Press, 1999) and coauthor of Girls Rock! Fifty Years of Women Making Music (University Press of Kentucky, 2004). She is an avid racquetball player, reader of murder mysteries, and hot tubber.

JANET LEE is professor of women studies at Oregon State University where she teaches a variety of courses on gender and feminism. Research interests include women's history and biography, feminist theories and pedagogy, and issues concerning women and the body. She is author of War Girls: The First Aid Nursing Yeomanry (FANY) in the First World War (Manchester University Press, 2005), Comrades and Partners: The Shared Lives of Grace Hutchins and Anna Rochester (Rowman and Littlefield, 2000), and coauthor of Blood Stories: Menarche and the Politics of the Female Body in Contemporary U.S. Society (Routledge, 1996). She enjoys gardening, riding her horses, and playing tennis.
