Acknowledgments

This book couldn't have been written without the help of dozens of individuals.

The unsung heroes of this book are the clients and friends of the authors who shared the stories of the crises in their lives. They all have our deepest thanks.

Seven heroes whose names can be sung are those experts who shared their wisdom and insights with us: Gary Ambrose, Allen Bahn, Tom Ellet, Erik Kolbell, Linda Lubitz, Olivia Mellan, and David Newman.

Thanks to our editor, Debra Englander, who helped refine the concept and keep us on course.

Thanks to our agent, Stuart Krichevsky, who has always been the master of both palliative measures and revenue rehabilitation.

Special thanks to Brian Mahon, Stephanie Dahle, and Jacob Croke for all their support in the research and production of this book. They helped make a molehill out of a mountain.

Finally, thanks to our wives, Corky Pollan and Deirdre Martin Levine, for being our true Lifelines.
