CambridgeSoft End-User License Agreement for Software Products

Important: This CambridgeSoft Software License Agreement ("Agreement") is a legal agreement between you, the end user (either an individual or an entity), and CambridgeSoft Corporation ("CS") regarding the use of CS Software Products, which may include computer software, the associated media, any printed materials, and any "online" or electronic documentation. By installing, copying, or otherwise using any CS Software Product, you signify that you have read the CS End User License Agreement and agree to be bound by its terms. If you do not agree to the Agreement's terms, promptly return the package and all its contents to the place of purchase for a full refund.

CambridgeSoft Software License

1. Grant of License. CambridgeSoft (CS) Software Products are licensed, not sold. CS grants and you hereby accept a nonexclusive license to use one copy of the enclosed Software Product ("Software") in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. This licensed copy of the Software may only be used on a single computer, except as provided below. You may physically transfer the Software from one computer to another for your own use, provided the Software is in use (or installed) on only one computer at a time. If the Software is permanently installed on your computer (other than a network server), you may also use the Software on a portable or home computer, provided that you use the software on only one computer at a time. You may not (a) electronically transfer the Software from one computer to another, (b) distribute copies of the Software to others, or (c) modify or translate the Software without the prior written consent of CS, (d) place the software on a server so that it is accessible via a public network such as the Internet, (e) sublicense, rent, lease or lend any portion of the Software or Documentation, (f) modify or adapt the Software or merge it into another program, (g) modify or circumvent the software activation, or (h) reverse engineer the software activation so as to circumvent it. The Software may be placed on a file or disk server connected to a network, provided that a license has been purchased for every computer with access to that server. You may make only those copies of the Software which are necessary to install and use it as permitted by this agreement, or are for purposes of backup and archival records; all copies shall bear CS's copyright and proprietary notices. You may not make copies of any accompanying written materials.

With a fixed license, the software cannot be installed on more than the number of computers equivalent to the number of fixed licenses purchased. For example, a 10-user fixed license means the software can be installed on no more than 10 different computers. A fixed license cannot be installed on a server. With a concurrent license, the software can be installed on any number of computers at the organization, but the number of computers using the software at any one time cannot exceed the number of concurrent licenses purchased. For example, a 10-user concurrent license can be installed on 20 computers, but no more than 10 users can be using it at any one time. If the number of users of the software could potentially exceed the number of licensed copies, then Licensee must have a reasonable mechanism or process in place to assure that the number of persons using the software does not exceed the number of copies. CambridgeSoft reserves the right to conduct periodic audits no more than once per year to review the implementation of this agreement at the Licensee's site. At CambridgeSoft's request, Licensee will provide a knowledgeable employee to assist in said audit.

2. Ownership. The Software is and at all times shall remain the sole property of CS. This ownership is protected by the copyright laws of the United States and by international treaty provisions. Upon expiration or termination of this agreement, you shall promptly return all copies of the Software and accompanying written materials to CS. You may not modify, decompile, reverse engineer, or disassemble the Software.

3. Assignment Restrictions. You may not rent, lease, or otherwise sublet the Software or any part thereof. You may transfer on a permanent basis the rights granted under this license provided you transfer this Agreement and all copies of the Software, including prior versions, and all accompanying materials. The recipient must agree to the terms of this Agreement in full and register this transfer in writing with CS.

4. Use of Included Data. All title and copyrights in and to the Software product, including but not limited to any images, photographs, animations, video, audio, music, text, applets, Java applets, and data files and databases (the "Included Data"), are owned by CS or its suppliers.

· You may not copy, distribute or otherwise make the Included Data publicly available.

- Licensed users of ChemOffice Enterprise and Workgroup and the accompanying Plugin software products may access, search, and view the Included Data and may transmit the results of any search of the Included Data to other users of the licensed ChemOffice Enterprise and Workgroup software products within your organization only, provided that such transmission is via an internal corporate (or university) network and is not accessible by the public.
- You may not install the Included Data on non-licensed computers nor distribute or otherwise make the Included Data publicly available.
- You may use the Software to organize personal data, and you may transmit such personal data over the Internet provided that the transmission does not contain any Included Data.
- All rights not specifically granted under this Agreement are reserved by CS.

5. Separation of Components. The Software is licensed as a single product. Its component parts may not be separated for use on more than one computer, except in the case of ChemOffice Enterprise. ChemOffice Enterprise includes licenses for ChemDraw ActiveX and licenses for Chem3D ActiveX. The ActiveX software products may be installed on computers other than that one on which ChemOffice Enterprise is installed. However, each copy of the ActiveX is individually subject to the provisions of Paragraphs 1 through 4 of this Agreement.

6. Educational Use Only of Student Licenses. If you are a student enrolled at an educational institution, the CS License Agreement grants to you personally a license to use one copy of the enclosed Software in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. In this case the CS License Agreement does not permit commercial use of the Software nor does it permit you to allow any other person to use the Software.

7. Termination. You may terminate the license at any time by destroying all copies of the Software and documentation in your possession. Without prejudice to any other rights, CS may terminate this Agreement if you fail to comply with its terms and conditions. In such event, you must destroy all copies of the Software Product and all of its component parts.

8. Confidentiality. The Software contains trade secrets and proprietary know-how that belong to CS and are being made available to you in strict confidence. ANY USE OR DISCLOSURE OF THE SOFTWARE, OR USE OF ITS ALGORITHMS, PROTOCOLS OR INTERFACES, OTHER THAN IN STRICT ACCORDANCE WITH THIS LICENSE AGREEMENT, MAY BE ACTIONABLE AS A VIOLATION OF OUR TRADE SECRET RIGHTS.

CS Limited Warranty

Limited Warranty. CS's sole warranty with respect to the Software is that it shall be free of errors in program logic or documentation, attributable to CS, which prevent the performance of the principal computing functions of the Software. CS warrants this for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of receipt.

CS's Liability. In no event shall CS be liable for any indirect, special, or consequential damages, such as, but not limited to, loss of anticipated profits or other economic loss in connection with or arising out of the use of the software by you or the services provided for in this agreement, even if CS has been advised of the possibility of such damages. CS's entire liability and your exclusive remedy shall be, at CS's discretion, either (A) return of any license fee, or (B) correction or replacement of software that does not meet the terms of this limited warranty and that is returned to CS with a copy of your purchase receipt.

NO OTHER WARRANTIES. CS DISCLAIMS OTHER IMPLIED WARRANTIES, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, AND IMPLIED WARRANTIES ARISING BY USAGE OF TRADE, COURSE OF DEALING, OR COURSE OF PERFORMANCE. NOTWITH-

STANDING THE ABOVE, WHERE APPLICABLE, IF YOU QUALIFY AS A “CONSUMER” UNDER THE MAGNUSON-MOSS WARRANTY ACT, THEN YOU MAY BE ENTITLED TO ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES ALLOWED BY LAW FOR THE PERIOD OF THE EXPRESS WARRANTY AS SET FORTH ABOVE. SOME STATES DO NOT ALLOW LIMITATIONS ON IMPLIED WARRANTIES, SO THE ABOVE LIMITATION MIGHT NOT APPLY TO YOU. THIS WARRANTY GIVES YOU SPECIFIC LEGAL RIGHTS, AND YOU MAY ALSO HAVE OTHER RIGHTS WHICH VARY FROM STATE TO STATE.

No Waiver. The failure of either party to assert a right hereunder or to insist upon compliance with any term or condition of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of that right or excuse a similar subsequent failure to perform any such term or condition by the other party.

Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed according to the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Export. You agree that the Software will not be shipped, transferred, or exported into any country or used in any manner prohibited by the United States Export Administration Act or any other export laws, restrictions, or regulations.

Q: IS IT OK TO COPY MY COLLEAGUE'S SOFTWARE?

NO, it's not okay to copy your colleague's software. Software is protected by federal copyright law, which says that you can't make such additional copies without the permission of the copyright holder. By protecting the investment of computer software companies in software development, the copyright law serves the cause of promoting broad public availability of new, creative, and innovative products. These companies devote large portions of their earnings to the creation of new software products and they deserve a fair return on their investment. The creative teams who develop the software—programmers, writers, graphic artists and others—also deserve fair compensation for their efforts. Without the protection given by our copyright laws, they would be unable to produce the valuable programs that have become so important to our daily lives: educational software that teaches us much needed skills; business software that allows us to save time, effort and money; and entertainment and personal productivity software that enhances leisure time.

Q: That makes sense, but what do I get out of purchasing my own software?

A: When you purchase authorized copies of software programs, you receive user guides and tutorials, quick reference cards, the opportunity to purchase upgrades, and technical support from the software publishers. For most software programs, you can read about user benefits in the registration brochure or upgrade flyer in the product box.

Q: What exactly does the law say about copying software?

A: The law says that anyone who purchases a copy of software has the right to load that copy onto a single computer and to make another copy "for archival purposes only" or, in limited circumstances, for "purposes only of maintenance or repair." It is illegal to use that software on more than one computer or to make or distribute copies of that software for any other purpose unless specific permission has been obtained from the copyright owner. If you pirate software, you may face not only a civil suit for damages and other relief, but criminal liability as well, including fines and jail terms of up to one year.

Q: So I'm never allowed to copy software for any other reason?

A: That's correct. Other than copying the software you purchase onto a single computer and making another copy "for archival purposes only" or "purposes only of maintenance or repair," the copyright law prohibits you from making additional copies of the software for any other reason unless you obtain the permission of the software company.

Q: At my company, we pass disks around all the time. We all assume that this must be okay since it was the company that purchased the software in the first place.

A: Many employees don't realize that corporations are bound by the copyright laws, just like everyone else. Such conduct exposes the company (and possibly the persons involved) to liability for copyright infringement. Consequently, more and more corporations concerned about their liability have written policies against such "softlifting". Employees may face disciplinary action if they make extra copies of the company's software for use at home or on additional computers within the office. A good rule to remember is that there must be one authorized copy of a software product for every computer upon which it is run.

Q: Can I take a piece of software owned by my company and install it on my personal computer at home if instructed by my supervisor?

A: A good rule of thumb to follow is one software package per computer, unless the terms of the license agreement allow for multiple use of the program. But some software publishers' licenses allow for "remote" or "home" use of their software. If you travel or telecommute, you may be permitted to copy your software onto a second machine for use when you are not at your office computer. Check the license carefully to see if you are allowed to do this.

Q: What should I do if become aware of a company that is not compliant with the copyright law or its software licenses?

A: Cases of retail, corporate and Internet piracy or non-compliance with software licenses can be reported on the Internet at <http://www.siaa.net/piracy/report.asp> or by calling the Anti-Piracy Hotline: (800) 388-7478.

Q: Do the same rules apply to bulletin boards and user groups? I always thought that the reason they got together was to share software.

A: Yes. Bulletin boards and user groups are bound by the copyright law just as individuals and corporations. However, to the extent they offer shareware or public domain software, this is a perfectly acceptable practice. Similarly, some software companies offer bulletin boards and user groups special demonstration versions of their products, which in some instances may be copied. In any event, it is the responsibility of the bulletin board operator or user group to respect copyright law and to ensure that it is not used as a vehicle for unauthorized copying or distribution.

Q: I'll bet most of the people who copy software don't even know that they're breaking the law.

A: Because the software industry is relatively new, and because copying software is so easy, many people are either unaware of the laws governing software use or choose to ignore them. It is the responsibility of each and every software user to understand and adhere to copyright law. Ignorance of the law is no excuse. If you are part of an organization, see what you can do to initiate a policy statement that everyone respects. Also, suggest that your management consider conducting a software audit. Finally, as an individual, help spread the word that users should be "software legal."

Q: What are the penalties for copyright infringement?

A: The Copyright Act allows a copyright owner to recover monetary damages measured either by: (1) its actual damages plus any additional profits of the infringer attributable to the infringement, or (2) statutory damages, of up to $150,000 for each copyrighted work infringed. The copyright owner also has the right to permanently enjoin an infringer from engaging in further infringing activities and may be awarded costs and attorneys' fees. The law also permits destruction or other reasonable disposition of all infringing copies and devices by which infringing copies have been made or used in violation of the copyright owner's exclusive rights. In cases of willful infringement, criminal penalties may also be assessed against the infringer.
